Mr. John McMahon
Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear John,

After some forty odd years of federal service, I have decided to try my hand in the business world. After considerable investigation of a number of companies, I have joined Pacific-Sierra Research Corporation in their Washington Office as Program Manager-Arms Control. The Corporation has a number of competent personnel engaged in a wide variety of activities germane to the subject. I intend to apply my extensive background in nuclear weapons, together with my experience in arms control policy formation and negotiations, to the solution of various issues as they arise.

I have enclosed a small brochure on PSR and my card. If any of these capabilities are of interest, please give me a call and in any event I look forward to continuing our past association.

Sincerely,

Edward B. Giller
